Wadham College

Wadham is one of the largest of the colleges of the University of Oxford, with approximately 450 undergraduates, 250 postgraduates, around 70 Fellows and more than 130 support staff. Founded in 1610, Wadham celebrated its 400th anniversary in 2010. It has an annual turnover of some £10M and reserves in excess of £100M.

Wadham attracts undergraduate and postgraduate students from a wide range of backgrounds thanks to its informal atmosphere, academic strength, historic environment and the open-minded, progressive and socially aware attitude of its community. Wadham College is proud to be a Living Wage employer since April 2015 and has been awarded Investors in People since 2003.

The College's Governing Body consists of the Warden and Fellows and is chaired by the Warden. The current Warden is Robert Hannigan (Classics, 1983) who came to Wadham in September 2021 and was Director of GCHQ, the UK's largest intelligence and cyber security agency.

GUIDEANCE FOR STUDENTS ON PAID WORK EXPERIENCE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD ONLY

The details below are taken from the University of Oxford (05/05/21) website under 'Oxford Life/ Skills and work experience.'

<https://www.ox.ac.uk/students/life/experience?wssl=1>

Undergraduate students: Term-time employment is not permitted except under exceptional circumstances and in consultation with your tutor and senior tutor. During vacations you will be required to complete academic work and this should take priority over other commitments. However, the Careers Service can help you to find work experience placements during the vacations, with the agreement of your tutor.

Graduate students: If you do decide to undertake a limited amount of paid work during your studies, whether as part of your academic development or to help to support yourself financially, you must observe the University's paid work guidelines and ensure that any paid work undertaken does not adversely affect your studies or ability to complete your course on time.

International students: If you are studying at Oxford under the terms of a visa, refer to visa and immigration for information regarding working in the UK.

Within the paid work guidelines, the following may be possible:

- Teaching opportunities: departments and colleges are sometimes able to offer teaching work.
- Demonstratorships - in the experimental sciences, graduate students can sometimes work as a demonstrator in practical classes.
- Research Assistantships - these are available from some departments and faculties.
- Junior Deans – Advertised by colleges, these positions involve providing pastoral care to other students and being on-call day and night several times a week. Junior Deans normally receive free college accommodation, free meals and a modest annual stipend
