Wadham College

Wadham is one of the largest of the colleges of the University of Oxford, with approximately 450 undergraduates, 200 postgraduates, around 70 Fellows and approximately 120 support staff. Founded in 1610, Wadham celebrated its 400th anniversary in 2010.

Wadham attracts undergraduate and postgraduate students from a wide range of backgrounds thanks to its informal atmosphere, academic strength, historic environment and the open-minded, progressive and socially aware attitude of its community. Wadham College is proud to be a Living Wage employer since April 2015 and has been awarded Investors in People since 2003.

The College's Governing Body consists of the Warden and Fellows and is chaired by the Warden. The current Warden is Robert Hannigan (Classics, 1983) who came to Wadham in September 2021.

Wadham College's main site is on Parks Road, Oxford. The College also has several off-site properties including:

- Dorothy Wadham residential site, Iffley Road
- Merifield residential site, Summertown
- Lathbury Road, Summertown
- Sports ground, Summertown
- Boathouse, near Christ Church Meadow

It is the Lodge's responsibility for responding to calls for assistance and fire alarm activations at these sites where appropriate.

General Overview

The Lodge is not only front of house, but in many ways it is the hub of the College and the role of a Lodge Receptionist, whether it is during the day or night, is vital to the efficient running of the College. As a Lodge Receptionist you are expected to be knowledgeable about College life and rules, to be polite and helpful when dealing with both members of the public and the wider college community, yet firm when the occasion warrants. You will be expected to provide cover during colleagues' absences, which will require Lodge Receptionists to work day, evening and night shifts. When on duty and the kitchen is open, meals may be provided, but the consumption of alcoholic drink is strictly prohibited whilst on duty and no alcohol is to be consumed within the four hours prior to coming on duty. A 'No-Smoking' policy operates within the College buildings.

Responsibilities and duties

The Lodge Receptionist role will include, but is not limited to, the following tasks and responsibilities:

Customer Service/Front Desk (nights)

1. Provide a warm, friendly and professional welcome to the College, ensuring visitors and College members are acknowledged quickly and helped in a timely fashion.
2. Be sympathetic to the support and welfare needs of the student body; providing a friendly, approachable and safe environment for students to get information or signposting to the appropriate support resources. You are not expected to provide welfare support in this role but may act as the first point of contact.

3. Deal with a wide and varied flow of people at different levels. Tact, diplomacy, discretion and a professional approach are required at all times.
4. To act as a point of information for college members, guests and to visitors throughout the year. Able to quickly provide, or know where to find information, and to be knowledgeable about the College history, the local area and tourism attractions.
5. Handle telephone calls to the main switchboard, displaying a warm and professional welcome by phone and able to competently handle enquiries, deal with any requests yourself, where possible or, if unable to assist, then obtain further information and direct the caller to the appropriate person. Taking and communicating messages where required.
6. The ability to work proactively, to foresee any potential issues and to think strategically about contingency plans and communicate them effectively; able to comprehend the 'bigger picture' and how the activities and interactions of a busy College operation relate to the Lodge operation.
7. To deal with any unforeseen situations calmly and be able to use your own initiative to resolve minor issues confidently, but be aware of limitations and know when to escalate. To effectively communicate to the guest, in the first instance, and also to relevant departments as required.
8. To be confident in handling complaints and to follow procedures. Able to remain calm and composed to resolve the guests complaint quickly and to ensure all relevant departments are made aware of both the issue and the action taken to resolve it.
9. Attend at the Lodge except when called away on emergency or carrying out security patrol.

Safety & Security

10. In the absence of the Lodge Manager, be responsible for taking charge in a fire emergency as the Fire Incident Co-ordinator, in accordance with the College's fire safety policy.
11. Lock the main door to the College at midnight unless otherwise instructed.
12. Secure the gates into the Warden's Lodgings and the Fellows' Gardens at 22:00 each night and open again at 06:30 unless otherwise instructed.
13. Secure the Students' kitchen at midnight and open again at 06:30 unless otherwise instructed.
14. Be the first responder to College alarms in relation to intruder, fire and water.
15. Support the Lodge Manager to ensure a continuous safe and secure environment - highlighting any potential risk and impact on the College to the Lodge Manager.
16. Be first aid trained, proficient in fire prevention, CCTV, security and H&S regulations and act as first responder to incidents, and to coordinate with emergency services or University Services where required.
17. Carry out security patrols during the night and deal with any security or behavioural issues appropriately and professionally. Be vigilant at all times and able to confidently, but tactfully and politely challenge anyone who appears to need assistance. One Lodge Receptionist is to be present in the Lodge when the security checks are being carried out.
18. Be fully conversant with the College Security systems and procedures. Able to deal with any emergencies in a swift and prompt manner following the College Fire and other emergency plans.

19. Monitor and log CCTV in accordance with college procedures.
20. Monitor pedestrian and vehicular traffic at the Saville Road gate by CCTV and open/shut as required.
21. Responsible for providing written incident reports in line with college policy.

General Operational Duties

22. Assist the Lodge Manager in supervising casual workers when on night duty and providing guidance and training when required.
23. Ensure the Lodge area is clean, tidy and organised and promotes a professional and welcoming first impression of the college, sorting post, delivering parcels and assisting with luggage;
24. Be IT proficient, particularly in the use of MS Office and be able to use the college booking system and room fob system;
25. Act as an information point and communicate relevant information across the appropriate departments, ensuring accurate and detailed handovers between shifts;
26. Assist tour party visitors within the College and ensuring the College is well presented for this purpose;
27. Carry out or assist with the right to search in accordance with College policy.
28. Monitor the Lodge email account and responding professionally and timely to incoming emails.
29. Assist the Dean, Domestic Bursar and Junior Deans in the enforcement of College Rules, ensuring that noise disruption is kept to a minimum and that procedures for managing noise or behavioural issues are complied with to minimise the impact on residents of the college;
30. Ensure the Lodge issue keys/fobs accurately, complying with all procedures;
31. Support the Maintenance team in making initial assessments out-of-hours in resolving maintenance problems, referring as necessary;
32. Collect, cash-up and accurately record all monies paid by visitors or tour parties;
33. Put up and take down flags as instructed;
34. Comply with College data protection and information security policies and ensure processes and communications conform to College GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) requirements.
35. Maintain strict confidentiality at all times.
36. Undertake any job-related training requested by the College
37. Work as part of a busy team and be flexible and willing to help colleagues when required.
38. The list is not intended to be comprehensive and from time to time the Domestic Bursar or the Lodge Manager may direct Lodge Receptionists to carry out any other tasks commensurate with their important role
