

THINK LIKE A LAWYER

Linklaters

Are you interested in a career in law?

Wadham College, University of Oxford, and Linklaters LLP are offering a unique opportunity for Year 12 students. This free, two-year programme will support students interested in studying law at a top university.

WHAT DOES THE PROGRAMME OFFER?

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 8 online sessions to develop law study skills                   | Personal statement mentoring                  |
| 20 hours of 1-to-1 A Level tutoring                             | Free laptop and technical support             |
| Visits to University of Oxford and Linklaters LLP London office | Career awareness sessions with Linklaters LLP |
| Admission test preparation and support                          | A tutorial with Oxford academics              |

"I was told about the programme by the school and saw that it offered super unique insight - getting to speak to law students, how they think, learn about the skills needed."

- Think Like a Lawyer 2021 Participant

HOW CAN I APPLY?

To apply for the Think Like a Lawyer programme, you must meet our eligibility criteria:

- You must be in Year 12 at a non-selective state school.
- You must live in one of Balliol, Hertford or Wadham College's regional link areas of Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire, Luton, Hertfordshire, Norfolk, Suffolk, Essex, Peterborough, Southend-on-Sea, Thurrock or Medway or the London boroughs of Barking and Dagenham, Camden, Hackney, Havering, Islington, Newham, Redbridge and Tower Hamlets.
- You must have been eligible for Free School Meals in the last 6 years.

The Think Like a Lawyer programme is free. Students do not need to study A Level Law or have prior knowledge to be able to apply for this programme.

The deadline for applications is 4th November 2022

For further information and to apply for the programme, please visit <https://www.wadham.ox.ac.uk/schools-and-outreach/think-like-a-lawyer>